

Brecksville-Broadview Heights High School

Performance Tour of Boston

April 13 – 17, 2019

Proposed Itinerary

Day One – Saturday, April 13, 2019

Depart	Depart Brecksville-Broadview Heights High School this evening to begin your journey to Boston (approximate drive time is 9 ¾ hours without stops, 650 miles).
Arrival	Welcome to Boston! Upon arrival, meet your Gateway Tour Managers.
Dinner	Included
Hotel	Your Gateway Tour Managers will assist with hotel check-in.

Day Two – Sunday, April 14, 2019

Breakfast	Included
City Tour/ Freedom Trail	Take a guided walking/driving tour of Boston, including parts of the Freedom Trail, the Old North Church, Old Ironside, and Bunker Hill. Other sights include Fenway Park, Boston Common, Copley Square, The Big Dig, and Newbury Street.
Lexington/Concord Tour	A local guide will take us to Lexington and Concord, where on April 19, 1775, British troops marching to Concord first encountered a band of Minutemen at Lexington Green, where the first shots were fired in the Revolutionary War. The Green today is pretty much as it was on that April morning.
Quincy Market/ Faneuil Hall	Spend the rest of the afternoon at Quincy Market and Faneuil Hall, for shopping and exploring.
♪ Public Performance	Perform for the public at Faneuil Hall. Public performances occur in spaces or locations that attract the general public. Indoor venues may include museums, aquariums and shopping centers. Gateway obtains advance authorization and secures a performance time. Typical lengths range from 30-60 minutes. Audiences are ambient, comprised of people visiting the site.
Dinner	Faneuil Hall Restaurant
Blue Man Group	Enjoy a performance of the Blue Man Group. Critics describe them as "visually stunning" and "musically powerful." Blue Man Group is best known for its award-winning theatrical productions which showcase their unique style of music played on a variety of creative instruments (based on a $67.75 ticket value).

Day Three – Monday, April 15, 2019

Breakfast Included

🎵 School Exchange Concert

Participate in a school exchange concert in Boston or the surrounding area.
School exchange concerts are held in rehearsal rooms or auditoriums at local schools. Audiences are comprised of students at the local school, ranging from members of one ensemble to larger segments of the student body.

Plymouth Rock/
Plimoth Plantation

Drive to Plymouth and see Plimoth Plantation, experiencing life very much as it was for the earlier settlers. You will also have an opportunity to see the famous Plymouth Rock.

Boston Harbor
Cruise

Boston Harbor dinner cruise with DJ dance

Day Four – Tuesday, April 16, 2019

Breakfast Included

Cambridge

Explore Cambridge this afternoon, with time to stroll through the lively campus of Harvard University.

Boston Common

Enjoy some free time walking around the beautiful Boston Common, the oldest park in the country. British troops prepared for the Revolution on these 50 acres, and left from here to face battle at Lexington and Concord in April, 1775. Take some time to enjoy a Swan Boat ride around the Lagoon (admission not included), or view the famous Make Way for Ducklings sculpture. Mrs. Mallard and her 8 ducklings were the subject of Robert McCloskey's famous 1941 book, which has sold over two million copies.

JFK Library & Museum

Step back into the recreated world of the early 1960's and the Kennedy presidency. A National Memorial features three theaters, period settings and 20 dramatic exhibits. Research President Kennedy's life, career and the times in which he lived.

Dinner
